

Conversation Cards

For the card at your table please do the following:

- Discuss at your table who may hold such a view
- Discuss how that person or group of people may define “good”
- Discuss how that person or group of people may define “bad”

This Lab Section

- ❑ Conversation cards: Beliefs are a reflection of one's worldview
- ❑ Tool: Bible Hub
- ❑ Stories as review: Steve and window
- ❑ New topic: freewill, the gateway of evil?
- ❑ Practice: conversation partners
- ❑ Recap and closing prayer

The pearl this week

Evil + Love > No Evil

Tool: Bible Hub

Network: fbccor

Password:

Screen: App store

Search: Bible Hub

This Lab Section

- ❑ Conversation cards: Beliefs are a reflection of one's worldview
- ❑ Tool: Bible Hub
- ❑ Stories as review: Steve and window
- ❑ New topic: freewill, the gateway of evil?
- ❑ Practice: conversation partners
- ❑ Recap and closing prayer

freewill, the gateway of evil?

Question: How can a good God allow evil in the world?

What types of worlds are possible?

1. A world without; evil, suffering or sin
2. A world with; evil, suffering and sin
3. ...

Question: Which of these worlds is best?

The pearl this week

Evil + Love > No Evil

This Lab Section

- ❑ Conversation cards: Beliefs are a reflection of one's worldview
- ❑ Tool: Bible Hub
- ❑ Stories as review: Steve and window
- ❑ New topic: freewill, the gateway of evil?
- ❑ Practice: conversation partners
- ❑ Recap and closing prayer

Next Week

Read Course 101 pp. 21-35 – A
Good Thing gone Bad